78 Vocational Students To Graduate July 6

The area north of Bachelor Quarters No. 8 flanked by the building's wings will be the locale for the graduation ceremonies of the Lago Vocational School Class of 1952. As in previous years, the graduation will be at night and guests will be invited on an invitation basis.

The Class of 1952 will graduate 78 students.

Mr. & Mrs. Forgan Visiting Lago

The foster mother and father of four sets of Allentown scholarship winners arrived June 24 for their first visit to Aruba and Lago, the company that yearly sends them their foster children. With the exception of the arrival of Queen Juliana, Beatrix Airport probably never has seen a larger gathering.

In addition to all the former scholarship winners and their parents who were on hand to greet the Forgans, the parents and friends of Rodriguez and John Noguera, returning scholarship students were also there. The Forgans and two students all came down together.

While here the Forgans will visit the Lago Vocational School, tour the refinery and the island, attend a reception in their honor at which time they will meet the parents and friends of some of their foster children, attend an LVS Awards Day and, probably the highlight for both of them, attend the Lago Vocational School graduation July 6 and be among those to first hear the names of the 1956-57 scholarship winners. To the Forgans it will be the names of the two young men who will be living with them through the school year.

The Forgans will be Lago's guest for two weeks.

Turn In Safety Slips with CYIs On Hazards

In order to act upon safety hazards that are called to the company's attention through a CYI, the Coin Your Ideas Committee suggests that employees also send in a safety slip to the Safety Division. The committee's suggestion is made because it is Lago's practice to act without delay in eliminating safety hazards. A safety slip is processed much quicker than a CYI. So don't wait, the committee suggests. Send in the CYI and then send in a safety slip. The committee also points out that at no time will a CYI be jeopardized by a safety slip as long as both are endorsed by the same signature.

Y den caso cu tin algun hoben cu no por canna henter e distancia pa e club ariba e terreno di golf, Sr. Schouten ta transporta nan den su auto. Humamento no ta permiti den e club, e muchanan mas bieuw por huma pafor. E oranan ta 8 'or pa muchanan bieuw. Tur Diahuebes anochi Sev. A Beginning

On Feb. 10 of this year an idea emerged from desire to a thing of reality. It was almost insignificant, but it was "a beginning." It all came about when Gerardus Schouten, a sincere champion driving for a youth movement in Aruba, negotiated a parcel of land in Juanamorto upon which to build the Aruba Youth Club. He had the land and then he didn't. As peculiar as it seems, he was given a small area, but later negotiations revealed circumstances whereby the land could not be given to promote the youth center idea.

The "now I have it, now I don't" was enough to start Mr. Schouten moving. Said he: "The fact that I had a piece of land, if only for a short while, made me confident that I could find another spot someplace in San Nicolas that I could keep for my boys." And he was quite correct in his prognostication.

Not too long after he had made some disappointing queries, he came upon M. Viana, local auto dealer, who was most receptive to the idea. So much so that he donated about 200 square meters of land on his old golf course to Mr. Schouten's movement. In addition Mr. Viana gave the old golf clubhouse. Needless to say, that was all the energetic Mr. Schouten needed.

The next step included a series of calls to merchants and individuals for donations of building materials, paints for the grounds and athletic equipment for the boys' recreation. He received supplies enough to get started. His boys quickly and quite efficiently cleaned up the grounds, made minor repairs on the building and set about painting everything in sight. ELMAR donates electricity free of charge.

Fifteen boys started out with Mr. Schouten. They now number over 250, aged three to 26. The youths congregate at their Aruba Youth Club every afternoon starting at 3 o'clock. And in case there are a couple of youngsters who can't walk the distance to the clubhouse on the old golf course, Mr. Schouten transports them in his car. Smoking is not allowed in the clubhouse, but

ONCE THE boys of the Aruba Youth Club received the necessary paint and brushes, they proceeded to clean up and paint the building donated by M. Viana. The club is located on 200 square meters of the old golf course, also donated by Mr. Viana to the Aruba Youth Club.

UNA VEZ e mucha hombernan di Aruba Youth Club a recibi e verf y brushnan necesario, nan a limpia y verf e lugar doná door di M. Viana. E club ta keda ariba 200 metro cuadrá di e terreno bieuw di golf, tambe doná door di Sr. Viana.

AMONG THE games donated by merchants and individuals was a pool table. Located in one corner of the clubhouse, it is a popular form of entertainment for the boys who congregate there every afternoon.

ENTRE e weganan doná door di comerciante y personanan tabata un pool table. E ta poní den hoeki di e club, y ta un forma popular di recreacion pa e mucha hombernan cu ta topa aki tur atardi.

ALWAYS A popular pastime when boys get together at any youth center regardless of where it is located is a good boxing match. A couple of lightweights battle here.

SEMPER un pasatempo popular ora mucha hombernan topa na cualkier centro pa hubentud no importa na unda ta un bon match di boxeo. Aki dos peso liviano ta combati.

FOR THE younger children are toys, some more of the recreation-type equipment donated by merchants and community-minded individuals. This group of boys busy themselves with popular building blocks.

PA E muchanan mas hoven tin cos di hunga y algun aparatonan di recreacion regalá door di comerciantenan y personanan cu sentimento social. E grupo aki ta trahando cu e popular blokkinan.

ONE OF the most popular features of the new Aruba Youth Club is the Thursday evening movie show. Although the club is a boy's club, sisters are invited to attend the movies. The Thursday evening group usually runs about 300 boys and girls.

UN DI e aspectonan mas popular di Aruba Youth Club ta e pelicula Diahuebes anochi. Maske e club ta pa mucha homber, ruman muhernan ta worde invitá pa atende e peliclanan. Tur Diahuebes anochi como 300 mucha homber y mucha muher ta mira e cine.

SOME MORE of the activities of the club are soccer (right above) and ping pong (right). Other activities include softball, baseball and inside table games like checkers. From a start of 15 boys, the club has grown to over 250 young men.

ALGUN actividad mas di e club ta futbol (banda drechi ariba) y ping pong (banda drechi). Otro actividadnan ta inclui softball, baseball y weganan di mesa manera schaak. E club a emunza cu mas of menos 15 mucha homber y awor ta consisti di mas cu 250.

Kramer Group Here July 8

Pro Tennis Troupe To Play in Aruba

Tennis fans of Aruba have a large treat in store for them. It comes in the form of the world's outstanding professional tennis troupe made up of four top-flight men: United States' Tony Trabert and Pancho Segura, Ecuador's (and lately United States') Pancho Segura and Australia's Rex Hartwick. They will appear at the Lago Sport Park July 8.

The group comes here under the direction of its organizer, director and former playing member, Jack Kramer. The Aruba appearance won't be the first for two of the troupe's members. Both Jack Kramer and Pancho Segura appeared here in July, 1953. At that time Kramer was a playing member of the team and at the Lago Sport Park three years ago he defeated Frank Sedgman of Australia while Segura lost his two-set match to Ken McGregor, another Australian.

The July 8 appearance here is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. The matches - of which there will be both singles and doubles - will be played on the Sport Park courts. Tickets will sell for Fls. 5 for seats and Fls. 2 for standing room.

The professional tennis stars are being brought to Aruba under the auspices of the Esso Tennis Club.

older boys may smoke outside. The evening hours run to 8 o'clock for younger members and 9 o'clock for the older ones. Movies are shown every Thursday evening by Sev. Luydens of Lago's Public Relations Department. And on this evening some 300 boys and girls attend.

The youngsters watch the movies while sitting on the ground or old boxes because they don't have all the equipment needed. "But it is a beginning, to be sure, it is a beginning," confidently smiles Mr. Schouten. He is confident the residents of the area will contribute to the growth of the Aruba Youth Club.

FOUR YEARS can make a lot of difference, and in these young men it has been just that. In four years they have matured physically and mentally. At left is the class of 1952 as they appeared when they first entered the Lago Vocational School. At right is the same group - not necessarily grouped the same way, however - on the eve of their graduation from LVS. Wiser in years, the ways of life and the skills of their respective vocations are these fine youths of Aruba.

CUATRO ANJA por haci hopi diferencia, y seguramente den e hobennan aki. Den cuatro anja nan a desaroya físicamente y mentalmente. Na banda robes ta e klas di 1952 e dia cu nan a drecha Lago Vocational School. Banda drechi ta e mes grupo - no necesariamente grupá na mes manera - na tempo di graduacion for di LVS. Mas adelantá den edad, modonan di hida y e sabernan di hobenan ta awor.
